President's Message

June 24, 2017

Dear Members and Friends:

It is my joy to welcome you to Camp Meeting 2017.

This year is a significant one for our celebration of God's leading.

We are mindful of the fact that this is the 500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, the very Reformation from which the Seventh-day Adventist Church emerged.

Special thanks to our pastors who have led their congregations in reviewing the Five Essentials, also called the Five Solas, which God led the reformers to challenge us to restore as priorities for our Christian lives:

1. Scripture Alone: The Bible alone is our highest authority.
2. Faith Alone: We are saved through faith alone in Jesus Christ.
3. Grace Alone: We are saved by the grace of God alone.
4. Christ Alone: Jesus Christ alone is our Lord, Saviour, and King.
5. To the glory of God alone: We live for the glory of God alone.

In these last days, characterized by instability, suffering, fear and bloodshed, I welcome you to God's unmistakable presence today.

A special welcome to our guests and to our recently baptized members who have come to experience your first camp meeting here in Ontario. May your experience today inform and enrich your walk with God and inspire you to reach others for Christ.

May God bless you richly today.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Mansfield W. Edwards, President

Speakers

Adults

Mike Tucker is speaker/director for Faith for Today Television, and lead pastor of the 1600-member, Arlington Seventh-day Adventist Church. Pastor Tucker's career has included work as an academy Bible teacher, youth pastor, hospice chaplain, psychiatric chaplain and hospital chaplain. Marriage, family, and individual counselling are major components of his ministry. Pastor Tucker has also served as an associate Ministerial secretary for the North American Division and Ministerial secretary for the Texas Conference.

Ivan Williams returns to Ontario's camp meeting for a second year in succession. For Camp Meeting 2017, he is the featured speaker for the Ordination/Commissioning Service. Pastor Williams is the Ministerial secretary for the NAD. He also serves as a chaplain for the California State Assembly, and as a chaplain (major) for the 129th California Air National Guard Rescue Wing. He is president of Brighter Hope Ministries, Inc., and can be heard on many radio stations around the country.

Youth/Young Adults

Chanda M. Nunes is associate pastor of Capitol City Adventist Church in Northern California Conference. She returns to Toronto, the city of her birth and home of her spiritual nurture. Nunes is a graduate of both Burman and Andrews Universities. She also holds an associate degree in Private Investigation. Pastor Nunes began pastoral ministry in the Alberta Conference in 2003, serving as an assistant pastor, chaplain for Parkview Adventist Academy and College Heights Christian School, before moving to new responsibilities in Kansas in 2008. Commissioned in 2011, Pastor Nunes has been in her current position since 2015.

Earliteens

Lyle Notice is associate Youth director for the Alberta Conference. He is a son of Ontario, where he called Toronto home. Pastor Notice began pastoral ministry at Ottawa Adventist Church in 2008 and quickly established himself as a youth pastor. He was called to his present position in 2008, where he works with Pathfinders; leads community outreach, and directs local mission trips, media ministry and disaster response.

Primary & Junior

Jordane Smith was born and raised in Toronto and is a recent graduate of Burman University, where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies. Her plans for the future include pursuing graduate studies at Andrews University. She hopes to reach both the church and the 'unchurched' for Christ by creating spaces where "the least of these" can belong, be seen, be heard, and be loved. Smith, accompanied by others, will lead the joint program of Primary and Junior divisions in the Aviation Ballroom.
